

In my community, the K-LOVE radio station is the only radio station I listen to because it holds to the values that my husband and I desire to surround ourselves with as well as train into our children. If K-LOVE was replaced by a LPFM, it would be a great loss to our home life as well as our community. I believe it is in public interest to keep K-LOVE broadcasting in our community, providing the positive and encouraging message it does.